

luna::vulkan::window

graph BT; A[luna::vulkan::windowsWindow] --> B[luna::vulkan::window]

The diagram illustrates an inheritance relationship. A light gray box at the bottom contains the text 'luna::vulkan::windowsWindow'. A blue arrow points vertically upwards from this box to a white box at the top, which contains the text 'luna::vulkan::window'. This indicates that 'luna::vulkan::windowsWindow' inherits from 'luna::vulkan::window'.
